

Thanee Kaewthummanukul, PhD, RN, APN

Dean, Chiang Mai University Faculty of Nursing

Director, CMU FON WHO Collaborating Center in Nursing and Midwifery Development
Thailand

Assistant Professor Dr. Thanee Kaewthummanukul serves as the Dean of the Faculty of Nursing at Chiang Mai University where he is also a lecturer in the Department of Public Health Nursing. He has previously served as Associate Dean for Administration and Human Resources, Associate Dean for Graduate Studies and Research, and Associate Dean for Research, Innovation, and Academic Services prior to taking on the role of dean. He also leads as the project manager for the Center for Occupational Health and Safety for Workers in the Northern Region of Thailand while having also served as manager and investigator on numerous research projects. With extensive national and international research output, his research interests include Workplace Health Promotion, Health Promotion and Risk Reduction, and Occupational Health Nursing. Dean Thanee maintains membership in national and international organizations including the Honor Society of Nursing, Sigma Theta Tau International, the International Commission on Occupational Health, and the Thailand Nursing and Midwifery Council. He has received awards for his work, including Outstanding Education Promoter in Chiang Mai Province (2022). Dean Thanee holds a PhD in Nursing and a Master in Science in Nursing from the University of Alabama at Birmingham in the United States while being a registered nurse (RN) as well as advanced practice nurse (APN) in his home country.